

Working From Home & Mobile Working

Seminar objective

Mobile working - not only in home office, but also on the road - is a standard part of the current working environment. There are different methods for structuring remote work that simplify organization, meetings with the team and the interaction with customers. You will be taught about self- and time-management in remote work and be made aware of the essential changes to working outside the office - the topic of self-motivation will also be covered.
