

Labour law in brief

Practical overview of all essential labor law frameworks

Seminar objective

Legislation and the associated labor law framework are increasing in complexity. A solid and up-to-date knowledge is important for the HR department as well as for managers in all areas, as they create a basis for cooperation for their employees and the entire company. Together with the trainer you will learn about the current regulations in interesting and practical examples. Politics and the economy often lead to changes in individual employment law, so it is essential to cover all core aspects so that you can execute decisions relevant to employment law without hesitation.
