

Body language

Detecting the hidden signals

Seminar objective

Those who are able to correctly interpret the signals of body language in conversations and negotiations can better adapt to their conversation partner. Conversations and negotiations are easier and more successful, the ability to communicate increases. In this seminar you will train the ability to observe and interpret the body language of your conversation partners. At the same time, you will get to know your own non-verbal behavior better, so that you can control it more consciously. You will gain more action competence for your everyday leadership, because it is not only your professional qualities that matter, but also your effect.
